

Monday:

Tuesday:

Wednesday:

What is an air mass?

Where are continental air masses formed?

Where are maritime air masses formed?

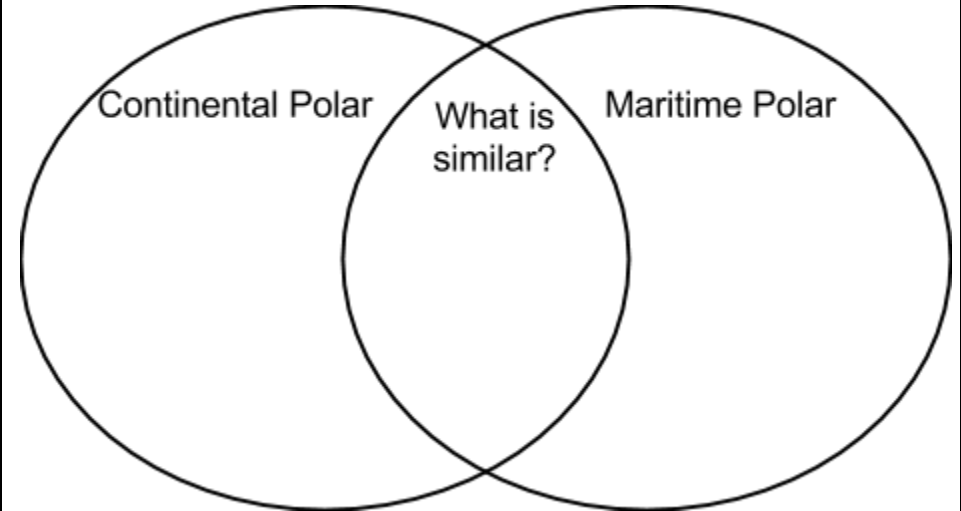

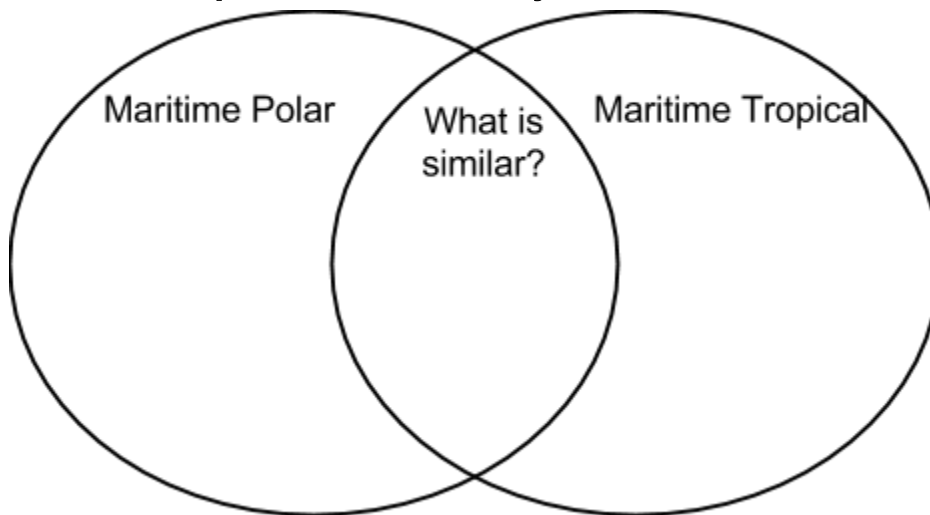

Where are tropical air masses formed?

Where are polar air masses formed?

For each air mass, list the abbreviation that goes with it, temperature (cool or warm) and the humidity (moist or dry):

- Continental Polar (____):
- Maritime Polar (____):
- Continental Tropical (____):
- Maritime Tropical (____):

Thursday: Fill in each part of the Venn Diagram with traits about the temperature and humidity of each air mass.

Are you stuck on how to fill out the frayer models? Use the sentence frames and questions below to help you get started.

Definition: A _____ is _____.

Characteristics: What are some traits about this thing? Describe the word.

Example: What is one true thing or real world example about this thing?

Non-Example: What is one not true or non-example of this thing?